FROM THE PRESIDENT’S DESK...

“We love thee so, our dear old school...”

Greetings and best wishes for the new decade! We have many things for which we can be thankful. Our alumni association continues to grow and we need the strength of all who claim allegiance to John J Wright to help us prosper.

A highlight of the past year was our annual Scholarship Banquet and Dance. Alumni throughout the years, along with family and friends, met to renew acquaintances and share experiences as they enjoyed a delectable meal. It was a special night for classes celebrating 40, 50, 60, and even 70-year reunions. Of special note was an elegant member of the class of 1939, Mrs. Lillian Robinson Pryde who shared memories of her school years and the importance of the village that supported the education of students. The class of 1949 was also represented. The class of 1959, joyously celebrating their 50th year, paid tribute to their class sponsor, Miss Courtney Sample. Banquet speaker, Donald Scott, a member of the class, reminded us of heroes of an era in our history who provided the bridge that brought us to where we are today. The class of 1969 spent most of their school years at John J Wright and was a part of the first graduating class after integration at Spotsylvania High School.

A portion of the banquet ticket cost is used to replenish funds for scholarships and stipends. Banquet 2010 will be held October 9, at the Fredericksburg Hospitality House. Please “save the date” on your calendar and tell all alumni you meet! Honorees will be the classes of 1940, 1950, 1960 and the class that would have been 1970. Let us know if you are a member of one of those classes. We are also developing a data base of all John J Wright alumni. Please share addresses or contact information. Note our mailing address and website.

We are also involved in, and excited about the development of the John J Wright Museum in the Sadie Combs Johnson Library at the newly renovated John J Wright Education and Cultural Center. Plans are ongoing with the anticipated opening date of July 2010. You can help by donating or loaning artifacts, allowing us to scan photographs and documents, financial contributions and telling others about this exciting project. You will want to purchase a museum calendar as a keepsake and to support the development of the museum.

Let us build on the past and expand our reach in the community. It is our duty to preserve and teach our history lest the story of the struggles of our heroes be lost. We can't depend on others to do it for us. It must be taught to our youth and documented for others to learn of our place in history. It is our responsibility to encourage and support our youth to reach beyond known horizons for achievements in a world we will not see. Working together, our possibilities are endless.

Constance E. Braxton, '58
President

JOHN J WRIGHT MUSEUM & CALENDER

“Throughout 2009, extensive research was conducted for the purpose of documenting the history of African American one-room school education and the Spotsylvania Training School, also call the Snell School, and later John J Wright Consolidated School. This calendar is a by-product of that research, and all the images therein will be available in the upcoming museum, opening in 2010.

The history of African American education in Spotsylvania County is a rich one. The Spotsylvania Training School received its initial breath from enlightened men and women of the Spotsylvania Sunday School Union who thought they could raise money to provide secondary education in Spotsylvania rather than helping to establish the Fredericksburg Normal and Industrial Institute.”

Terry Miller, co-author, African Americans in Spotsylvania County

Sample pictures:

- January – Summit School, also known as Second New Hope School
- February – Biography of Mr. John J Wright
- March – Alfred “Allie” Fairchild and the Spotsylvania Training School
- May – students in an early elementary classroom in the 1920s
- June – Piney Branch School
- November – Mrs. Bertha Pratt Fairchild, class of 1945

The calendar, developed by Terry Miller, is a keepsake. The cost of the calendar is $15.00; a portion of the proceeds will be used to financially support the development of the museum. Please contact Constance Braxton (540) 582-5138 for information to secure a calendar.
